Startup One-liner

An AI-powered digital infrastructure platform ensuring public safety, food security, and economic stability through predictive intelligence

Business Description

Perdix Origin is a Deep Tech ecosystem building digital infrastructure for the impact economy in Latin America. We solve critical inefficiencies in Agriculture and Public Safety using proprietary AI.

Our platform deploys two core solutions:

'AgroScan': A computer vision API that detects banana diseases with 100% accuracy to prevent crop loss.
'Safety Analytics': A geospatial model that predicts crime hotspots to improve citizen security.
Target Audience: Agricultural exporters, local governments, and SMEs in Ecuador.

Revenue Model: B2B SaaS & API Licensing. We charge a subscription for analytics dashboards and a usage-based fee for API access, allowing us to scale sustainably while democratizing high-tech tools.
